Investor Overview

Detective Sam and the Bible Time Travelers | Introductory project brief

An interactive Christian cartoon in development, created by Gail Morin through Detective Sam Media LLC. Children become "Little Detectives," exploring Bible stories and solving clues while discovering kindness, courage and faith.

The project at a glance

Audience: children ages 4-8 and families
Writing: first season written
Current preview: animatic showing story, timing and staging; it is a development preview, not final animation
Next milestone: align development partners, production scope and financing

Partnership conversations

Seeking animation, production, financing, distribution and licensing partners.

Discuss creative fit, the path to finished episodes, and the information needed to evaluate the project.

Progress and context

An earlier submission met the Angel Guild advancement threshold and received a conditional, non-binding Angel Studios letter of intent in June 2026.

This concerns the earlier submission. A distribution deal would require further review and a definitive agreement.

A separate education offering

Kindness Heroes books and educator materials focus on kindness and anti-bullying. Explore this separate education offering at Detective Sam Adventures; the Christian Bible Time Travelers series is a distinct project.

Request materials for your review

Review the animatic at detectivesammediallc.com and request private pitch materials. Email your organization, investment focus and review requirements; ask Gail for current production and financing information.

Funding target, budget, valuation and investment terms are not confirmed in this overview. Request current information directly from Gail.
