Licensing & Partnership Guide

Explore publishing, education and character-inspired product opportunities.

Detective Sam Media LLC welcomes conversations with publishers, education suppliers, manufacturers, retailers and other potential partners. Start with a clear product idea and the audience you want to serve.

Publishing and education

Books and publishing
Discuss storybooks, coloring and activity books, publishing collaborations and other suitable formats.

Educational resources
Explore student activities, educator materials and proposed classroom or family learning collaborations.

Toys and merchandise

Toys and plush
Discuss character toys, Detective Sam plush and related product concepts.

Apparel, gifts and stationery
Explore suitable character-inspired products and family activities. Concepts require review and approval.

Select the property and setting

Bible Time Travelers: a Christian animated series in development for children ages 4-8 and families.

Kindness Heroes: separate kindness and anti-bullying books and educator resources for preschool through high school. Optional Bible Adventures resources are clearly identified as Christian materials.

What to include in your introduction

Share your company and website, product category, intended audience, proposed format, territory and languages, sales or delivery channels, timeline, and relevant examples of your work. Explain which Detective Sam property or resources interest you.

Define the collaboration together

Specific rights, territories, languages, term, exclusivity, approval process, production responsibilities and commercial terms are subject to review and written agreement. Non-exclusive opportunities may be discussed. Rights availability must be confirmed for each proposal.

This guide invites a conversation; it does not grant permission to reproduce artwork, characters, books or other materials, or confirm a license or endorsement.
