

Detective Sam and the Bible Time Travelers

Interactive Christian storytelling for children ages 4-8.

A CLUE. A BIBLE STORY. A MEANINGFUL DISCOVERY.

Detective Sam joins Emma, Tommy, and their parents on imaginative journeys into Bible stories. Young viewers become "Little Detectives," following clues and pausing to answer questions as they explore kindness, courage, forgiveness, and faith.

Created by Gail Morin. First season written. Seeking animation, production, financing, distribution, and licensing partners.

An adventure ready for its next chapter.

AUDIENCE

Children ages 4-8 and family audiences.

STORY FORMAT

Interactive Christian cartoon in development, with clue-solving and "Little Detectives" participation moments.

WRITING STATUS

The first season is written, according to creator Gail Morin. Production planning and development are the next focus.

NEXT MILESTONE

Secure development and production partners, align the production scope and financing, and advance the series toward finished episodes.

WHAT WE ARE SEEKING

Animation & production - Studios and creative production partners to develop and produce the animated series.

Financing - Investors and financing partners interested in discussing development and production needs.

Distribution - Streamers and distributors interested in evaluating the series once developed.

Licensing - Non-exclusive opportunities to discuss books, publishing, toys, plush, apparel, and merchandise. Specific rights, territories, and terms are subject to agreement.

CURRENT CONVERSATIONS

Gail reports interest from a few streamers in reviewing the project once developed. This interest is preliminary and does not represent a signed distribution agreement or commitment.

An earlier Detective Sam submission met the Angel Guild advancement threshold, followed by a non-binding Angel Studios letter of intent in June 2026. Those milestones relate to the earlier submission; the current project remains in development.

Meet Gail Morin.

Creator. Author. Former educator.

Gail Morin is a Virginia-based children's author and former teacher with experience in Catholic schools, public schools, and early childhood education. Her storytelling brings together her Christian faith and her commitment to helping children learn.

Her work began with The Magical Adventures of Detective Sam and grew into a world of books, kindness and anti-bullying school programs, and the faith-based animated series concept.

AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEWS

Gail welcomes podcast, radio, print, and online interviews about:

- Creating an interactive Christian cartoon for children ages 4-8.
- Using clues, participation, and storytelling to invite children to learn.
- The journey from educator and author to series creator.
- Books, school programs, kindness, inclusion, and anti-bullying.

Faith, discovery, and everyday kindness

Gail Pickett Morin, creator of Detective Sam, introduces four free Christian Bible-learning samples for preschool and elementary children, with separate educator companions. The full Bible course is coming to IngramSpark March 2027 and remains in development.

Four samples - free to download

Little Detectives: The Kindness Clue - preschool course, 5 pages.

Little Detectives: Leader's Field Guide - preschool resource, 5 pages.

Bible Explorers: Three Missions of Faith - elementary course, 10 pages.

Bible Explorers: Teaching the Three Missions - educator resource, 10 pages.

Page counts include covers. No signup or purchase is required.

Who it is designed for: Christian preschools, Christian elementary schools, churches, Sunday schools, and Christian homeschool families. Activities explore Luke 10:25-37, Luke 19:1-10, and Matthew 5:14-16, using age-appropriate questions and practical caring actions.

Development and partnership potential: the samples connect Detective Sam storytelling with reusable lessons and adult teaching resources. Potential future products include expanded courses, print books, and optional visits; formats, prices, costs, rights, and demand require testing before any investment decision.

Illustrative reach - planning arithmetic only

10 groups x 20 learners = 200 learners.

50 groups x 20 learners = 1,000 learners.

These are hypothetical group-size examples, not enrollment, customers, a forecast, or a claim about market size. Current course adoption and learning outcomes have not been established.
